GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS WILLIAMS TO LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Stan Williams of Raleigh to the North Carolina Board of Landscape Architects.

Williams is the principal landscape architect for Park Drive Studios. He is a member of the American Society of Landscape Architects, N.C. State University Landscape Architecture Alumni Advisory Board, and a mentor to current NCSU landscape architecture students. He received his Bachelor's degree in environmental design in landscape architecture from N.C. State University.

The board approves exam candidates and issues permits and licenses to landscape architects. The board has seven members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
